Learning the Daisy Petals

Each Daisy petal represents a line of the Girl Scout Law. Each petal is a different color. Read the Girl Scout Law and then color in the Daisy!

Girl Scout Law

I will do my best to be honest and fair,
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring,
courageous and strong, and responsible for what I say and do and to respect myself and others,
respect authority,
use resources wisely,
make the world a better place, and be a sister to every Girl Scout.

Do an Animal Dance

For each animal below, write the kind of movement it makes (see #1 for an example). Then, with a grown up or a group of friends, put on some music and take turns calling out the different animals. When a new animal is called, everyone dances like that animal until the next animal is called!

Become an Outdoor Detective!

There are many different kinds of trees in the world. When you're driving in the car, visiting the park, or playing in your backyard, can you spot 3 different kind of trees in your neighborhood? Draw them below!

Learn some Girl Scout history!

The symbol below is called the Girl Scout Trefoil. The three parts of the Trefoil stand for the three parts of the Girl Scout Promise. Read the Girl Scout Promise, then color the trefoil Girl Scout green!

Sisters Sing Together

There are all sorts of Girl Scout songs from serious to silly. Many troops sing a particular song at the end of every meeting - can you fill in the lyrics below? When you're finished, try to find someone who was or is a Girl Scout to help you learn the tune.

Make new friends,
but keep the old,
one is silver and the other's gold.
A circle is round,
it has no end,
that's how long I want to be your friend.

Girl Scout Promise

On my honor, I will try:
To serve God and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law.

The Girl Scout Sign

When Girl Scouts recite the Girl Scout Promise and/or Law, they hold up the Girl Scout Sign. Practice at home! Hold up your hand, then tuck your pinky finger behind your thumb.
