

Camp Archbald

Camp Archbald, located in Susquehanna County in the woods of Endless Mountains in northeastern Pennsylvania, is the second oldest Girl Scout Camp in America. At Archbald, girls can enjoy nature the way it was intended, surrounded by beautiful forests and a spring-fed glacial lake. There are various sleeping quarters such as platform tents, cabins and even boathouses! Adventure awaits with boating, canoeing, archery, hiking, horseback riding, arts and crafts, swimming and so much more!

It is fully accredited by the American Camp Association (ACA) and meets the requirements of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and Girl Scouts of the USA.
