Tena Maurer

Introduced to Girl Scouts as a Brownie, Tena remembers the fun experiences from her Girl Scout childhood days. As an adult, she has been a troop leader for Daisy and Brownie troops and has enjoyed sharing her love for Girl Scouts with her daughter. Her most memorable experiences have been spending weekends at Camp Small Valley and traveling to Washington DC in 2012 to Rock the Mall to celebrate 100 years of Girl Scouts with 250,000 other Girls Scouts .

Tena is currently the Associate Vice President for Human Resources at Bloomsburg University and brings over twenty years of experience in a variety of Human Resource areas and industries in both the public and private sectors. She serves on the Board for the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education Faculty Health and Welfare Fund and is a member of the Diversity Equity and Inclusion Board of Advisors for the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education.

A Pennsylvania State University graduate in Business Management, Tena then received her Master's degree in Human Resources Management from Saint Francis University. She holds several HR related certifications including Professional in Human Resources (PHR) from HRCI and The Society for Human Resources Management's (SHRM) certified professional in Human Resources.

Tena, her husband, and three children enjoy spending time outdoors, RV camping, and supporting the kids at their sporting events. She is an active volunteer in the community and coaching youth sports. Tena has been serving on the Board Development Committee as a mid-Term appointee

Kathy McCorkle

Kathy McCorkle's love for Girl Scouts began in 1953 when she started as a girl member. She continued with Girl Scouts as a Girl Scout Camp Counselor for three years and a Day Camp Director for one year. In 1979, she held the position of Troop Overnight Camping Adjunct Leader.

Kathy has experience as a Nursery School Director, High School Mathematics Teacher, Educational Administrator, and Architectural Technologist/Historic Preservationist. Most recently, she was the CEO of YWCA of Greater Harrisburg and the Executive Director of Dauphin County Historical Society. She currently serves as the Chair of the Board of Directors.

Lynne Leopold-Sharp

Lynne's Girl Scout experiences included twelve years as a troop leader for her daughter's troops, and as Director of Product Sales and Family Giving for Penn Laurel GSC and Director of Product Sales for GSHPA. She was also a long-time volunteer for her sons' scout troops and church and served on the York Suburban School Board for twenty-two years holding the positions of president, vice president, and treasurer.

Lynne received her B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Pennsylvania, and her M.B.A. from Temple University. She worked as a museum curator for the National Park Service for more than a dozen years (at Independence NHP in Philadelphia, Minute Man NHP in Concord, MA, and the Northeast Region in Boston). She is the author of several historical and museum-related publications.

More recently Lynne served as the Director of the Financial Stability Partnership, a United Way program managed by Lutheran Social Services, and ended her working career with the Public School Employees' Retirement System. In retirement she and her husband, Dan, are active in the York County AARP TaxAide program.
