

girl scouts
in the heart
of pennsylvania

Girl Scout Silver Award

Girl Scout Mission

Girl Scouting builds girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place.

Girl Scout Promise

On my honor, I will try:
To serve God* and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law.

Girl Scout Law

I will do my best to be honest and fair,
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring,
courageous and strong,
and responsible for what I say and do,
and to respect myself and others,
respect authority,
use resources wisely,
make the world a better place,
and be a sister to every Girl Scout.

*Members may substitute for the word God in accordance with their own spiritual beliefs.

Silver Award by county

Adams County

Girl Scouts in Adams County focused on environmental and human needs in their 10 projects. They installed dog waste stations in a local park and revitalized a local trail that was previously unusable, all while teaching their community about how to look after the environment. Other troops worked to help alleviate some of the stress local teachers and low-income families experienced due to the pandemic. Some Girl Scouts developed a program with a local preschool to help with literacy for their students, and others created recipes and informative cooking videos for a local shelter to use based on the food they distributed in a given week.

Participating Troops: 80750, 80114, 81557, 80102 and 80094

Participating Girls: Rachel S., Jordan B., Abigail F., Leah T., Tayler B., Ava, Mirena K., Khloe R., Samantha W., Madison B., Lily J., Madelyn M. and Kate B.

Number of projects: 10

Centre County

Girl Scouts in Centre County shared a passion for the outdoors in their three projects. One troop worked on creating a community garden focused on increasing access to fresh vegetables, while another troop worked in a community space to create a pollinator garden and educated the community on the importance of bees. Other Girl Scouts worked on constructing a GaGa ball pit for a local school to encourage time together in the outdoors.

Participating Troops: 40034, 40076, 40418 and 40024

Participating Girls: Raven H., Anna T., Elizabeth S., Cassidy B., Hannah G., Gail O., Brooke S., Esme B. and Isobel H.

Number of projects: 3

Clinton County

Girl Scouts in Clinton County completed three projects that addressed human needs in their community. One Girl Scout focused on children in the foster and adoptive systems by working with a local organization to collect clothing donations and educate the community about the organization. Another Girl Scout worked with young children in a local program by creating lesson plans to teach the children about handling emotions. The third Girl Scout created activities and programs to bring elderly residents of a housing plaza together to encourage friendship and new relationships.

Participating Troops: 40158

Participating Girls: Hailie G., Catherine L. and Jocelyn S.

Number of projects: 3

Columbia County

Girl Scouts in Columbia County focused on two projects to service their local community members. One troop focused on helping the local fire company by planting and creating flower beds for the fire station. Another troop constructed and developed a Little Free Library for the community to promote access to literature.

Participating Troops: 60084

Participating Girls: Haley C., Eliza F. and Jenna M.

Number of projects: 2

Cumberland County

Girl Scouts in Cumberland County worked on 11 projects that addressed community development, human needs, animal needs, education and mental health. Each project provided a solution and educated the community about ways they can continue the work the Girl Scouts initiated.

Participating Troops: 11588, 10618, 10336 and 20506

Participating Girls: Bekka K., Evelyn H., Tessa F., Mya B., Madeline B., Hayleigh L., Taylor H., Makayla C., Megan K., Emily P., Katelyn H., Hannah S., Alessandra B., Cheyenne B., Ava J., Genevieve M., Juliana M., Remaz S., Mason R., Amanda L., Avery N., Natalie N., Marguerite B., Taylor M., Chloe L., Summer F. and Margaret C.

Number of projects: 11

Dauphin County

Girl Scouts in Dauphin County focused on human needs, education access and the outdoors in their 23 projects. Cooking lessons for children, sensory boxes, self-defense training, diaper collections, clothing drives and book share libraries were among the ways Girl Scouts helped their community. Other projects included creating a sensory garden and walkway for the public, a Zen garden and camp refurbishment. In developing these projects, Girl Scouts provided education to the public so the community can help to continue their work.

Participating Troops: 11943, 10235, 10753, 11693, 11958, 11454, 14003, 10277, 10101, 10238, 14000 and 14108

Participating Girls: Nicole E., Anne N., Heidi B., Chloe L., Hannah T., Havannah S., Greta B., Erica W., Gianna B., Jasmin E., Camille W., Maura C., Vanessa W., Lena P., Elizabeth C., Sarah M., Bailey S., Jordan S., Jody R., Angel V., Sarah B., Sarah H., Kaelan O., Giavanna S., Grace T., Sara Y., Aubrey Z., Mary O., Hannah H., Marissa H., Ella N., Trinity R., Jincy S., Madilyn P., Allie W., Tiffany K., Elizabeth T., Carina S., Madelyn W., Rachel L., Sylvia L., Cassie R., Nina C., Catharine W., Miranda H., Karly G., Noelle H., Lauren W., Kaitlyn W., Rosaleen D., Taylor S., Emma W., Elena W., McKenna M., Victoria A., Emma B., Rachel C., Brooke H., Alex B., Amber S., Sarrahann T., Nya R., Anya L., Allison W., Jersey S., Josie S., Haley H., Rubenna B. and Madeline C.

Number of projects: 23

Fulton County

Girl Scouts in Fulton County worked on educating the community about cybersecurity. Girl Scouts hosted an information session open to the community, covering a variety of topics related to cybersecurity with guest speakers available to offer specific help and answer questions.

Participating Troops: 81597

Participating Girls: Maggie M., Raevan S., Alison T. and Marin C.

Number of projects: 1

Huntingdon County

Girl Scouts in Huntingdon County focused their efforts on helping the homeless and camp restoration. One troop worked to create face masks for the homeless population in their community and shared instructions with others to help continue the work. Another troop refurbished areas of a local camp. Girl Scouts' efforts will have a lasting impact on their community.

Participating Troops: 40112 and 40131

Participating Girls: Emily D., Bailey T., Diane K., Casey Z., Elyssa H. and Violet C.

Number of projects: 2

Juniata County

Girl Scouts in Juniata County addressed food availability and women's needs in their community. One troop worked to create a community garden to promote access to fresh food and educate the community about healthy food options. Another troop collected baby items to help a local women's center and spread awareness about the center's needs to encourage the community to help in the future.

Participating Troops: 40370 and 60323

Participating Girls: Shylynn H., Kayla G., Kiya K. and Veronica H.

Number of projects: 2

Lackawanna County

Girl Scouts in Lackawanna County focused their three projects on community development, health education and the outdoors. Two troops created gardens – one with flowers that will benefit and thrive in the community and another with fresh vegetables to provide food for the community. Care instructions and recipes were shared with local organizations so the gardens will continue to be plentiful. Another troop rallied the public to help with a community-wide clean-up. Girl Scouts' efforts will have a lasting impact on their community, as the local recreational committee plans to continue the clean-up event in the future.

Participating Troops: 50999, 50023 and 50440

Participating Girls: Ayla H., Sierra L., Mary Lynne R., Lara E., Nina C., Sadie P., Cassidy S., McKenzie W., Addison R. and Alix R.

Number of projects: 3

Lancaster County

Girl Scouts in Lancaster County focused on human needs, education access and the outdoors through 12 projects. They educated others about endangered species in the area, refurbished a local campground, taught others how to create supplies for animal shelters, increased access to literature through Little Free Libraries and educated children about the history of the county.

Participating Troops: 71266, 71264, 70105, 70674, 70531, 70515, 70069, 70441 and 70803

Participating Girls: Christine W., Matalyn Z., Brynn Y., Ellie Y., Natalie M., Sydney C., Maeve K., Sophia P., Cecily S., Evelyn C., Anastasia S., Amelia R., Cecelia W., Emily S., Gwendolyn W., Katherine V., Kylie N., Kylie M., Merideth G., Katelynn M., Juliann V., Maya H., Sidney G., Emma D., Victoria P., Kenley S., Makayla B., Violet W., Elizabeth H., Cara C., Rebecca M., Sydney L., Sonia G., Lauren C., Emma T., Charlotte S. and Caellain B.

Number of projects: 12

Lebanon County

Girl Scouts in Lebanon County created six projects to address mental health, human and elderly needs and the environment. Through their projects Girl Scouts focused on establishing a free pantry to supply needed items to the community, creating cards for nursing home residents during the pandemic to help alleviate loneliness and eliminating plastic use and waste.

Participating Troops: 70338, 70430, 70549 and 71518

Participating Girls: Jill S., Eliani C., Madelyn L., Elizabeth L., Magdalene W., Madison V., Elizabeth L., Aubrey G., Tessa T., Briella F. and Cassie S.

Number of projects: 6

Luzerne County

Girl Scouts in Luzerne County completed 13 projects that addressed human needs, the needs of the elderly, health and the outdoors. Girl Scouts made hats for newborns and “bags of smiles” for children in the hospital. They also brought music into nursing homes to bring cheer to residents. Other projects included completing camp refurbishments and rebuilding pollinator populations while educating the community about their environment and encouraging the use of outdoor spaces. Another Girl Scout created an educational program to teach middle school girls about their bodies and collected materials girls need to have available at school.

Participating Troops: 32935, 30304, 30301, 32624, 30363 and 33932

Participating Girls: Paige G., Brianna L., Elyse M., Kendall W., Gabriella D., Lily G., Mercedes H., Ava D., Emma P., Adrienne W., Katelynn C., Ruby S., Ava N., Emily R., Sarina R. and Mariska R.

Number of projects: 13

Lycoming County

Girl Scouts in Lycoming County worked on three projects that addressed animal needs in the community. Troops collected donations at local businesses to help shelters. They made treats, catnip socks and other supplies to benefit animal shelters. Through these collection drives, Girl Scouts shared information about the shelters' needs so the community can continue to help.

Participating Troops: 60388 and 61373

Participating Girls: Ilie J., Emily, Hailey U., Gabby F., Maddie M., Katrina H., Aniya A. and Abby L.

Number of projects: 3

Monroe County

Girl Scouts in Monroe County completed 13 projects focused on mental health, human needs and the outdoors. Their projects included addressing period poverty, creating a safe space for teen girls, teaching the community about women's rights and spreading kindness. They also raised awareness about the Spotted Lantern Fly and built bat houses.

Participating Troops: 51005, 51008, 50679, 50341, 50716, 50821, 50814 and 50491

Participating Girls: Celeste F., Zoe B., Alexis T., Amea C., Brenna W., Jaelynn B., Kendra C., Isabella S., Gloria B., Kyla C., Sonali S., Emily B., Isabella L., Liberty U., Lila S., Kayla M., Kathleen S., Mykaila C., Anayah A., Briana P., Ashley P., Katie V., Kiera J., Lauren A., Laura B., Phoebe S., Mira G., Lily D., Delaney T., Julianna S., Paris P. and Sarah C.

Number of projects: 13

Montour County

Girl Scouts in Montour County addressed a safety issue in their community. Working with the local middle school, they observed the need for “No Idling” signs to be installed in the parking lot where students are picked up from school. Idling creates pollution, a topic Girl Scouts presented on to the school board and the community.

Participating Troops: 60089

Participating Girls: Addison P., Lauren S., Abra C. and Madeline C.

Number of projects: 1

Northumberland County

Girl Scouts in Northumberland County created a patch program to educate others about pollution prevention. The program is intended for younger Girl Scout troops to inspire them to recycle, pick up litter and become passionate about protecting the planet.

Participating Troops: 60413

Participating Girls: Abby C. and Madelina E.

Number of projects: 1

Perry County

Girl Scouts in Perry County focused their projects on addressing human needs they identified in their community. One troop worked on a donation drive for items for babies and pets that could be donated to families in need. They partnered with a local food bank to distribute the collection. Another troop designed, constructed and implemented food pantries for the community. The project was widely advertised and will continue to be available to those who can take what they need and leave what they can.

Participating Troops: 11436, 11495 and 10625

Participating Girls: Darah Z., Phoebe H., Sritanvi K., Kylie U., Carlee G., Alyssa G., Molly R., Amiah B., McKenzie C. and Lily S.

Number of projects: 2

Pike County

Girl Scouts in Pike County focused their project on beautifying outdoor community spaces. Girl Scouts developed a plan and worked with their borough council to agree on park beautification tasks the troop could complete to make the park a better space for children in the community.

Participating Troops: 50669

Participating Girls: Rachel V., Aida G. and Addison K.

Number of projects: 3

Schuylkill County

Girl Scouts in Schuylkill County created four projects that addressed human and health needs, as well as the needs of outdoor spaces in their community. Their projects included cemetery beautification, tree identification and educating their community about the work they did to encourage others to take better care of the environment. Other troops created care bags for foster children and collected food donations for a local homeless shelter.

Participating Troops: 31080, 31208 and 31105

Participating Girls: Kaitlyn Z., Lizzy G., Alexandra B., Allyson T., Gianna B., Grace O., Hailey M., Hannah L., Katie W., Kayleigh R., Lillian E., Bradyn B., Alyssa P., Emily W., Emily C., Jamie L., Trinity D., Lorelai D., Brooklyn D., Alyssa D. and Hope F.

Number of projects: 4

Snyder County

Girl Scouts in Snyder County created a project focused on collecting donations of baby items to help the local women's center. Girl Scouts also spread awareness of ways the community can continue to help the center even after the donation drive has ended.

Participating Troops: 60323

Participating Girls: Marissa L. and Danika L.

Number of projects: 1

Union County

Girl Scouts in Union County completed four projects focused on health education and the outdoors. They worked on a community garden and mud kitchen, and also provided information on the benefits of teaching children to use mud kitchens. Another troop created a hygiene closet for the local intermediate school. Girl Scouts worked with the school and community organizations to raise money to supply the closet with various items for students.

Participating Troops: 62055 and 61083

Participating Girls: Paige E., Erin D., Orissa R., Olivia M., Ellis R. and Natalie D.

Number of projects: 4

York County

Girl Scouts in York County focused on health education and human needs for their 13 projects. They made blankets for ill children, sensory kits for first responders, foster care bags, period pouches for girls getting their period for the first time and art packages for hospitalized children. Girl Scouts created solutions and shared information with their community to ensure that these projects can be continued.

Participating Troops: 20653, 20338, 20896, 21229, 20404, 20070, 21002, 20522, 21192 and 20566

Participating Girls: Grace Z., Eliana W., Isabella A., Claire H., Madison K., Jenna H., Piper S., Leah B., Kayla M., Leana H., Taylor H., Mallory R., Nadia P., Sadie P., Nora R., Rebekah W., April T., Virginia O., Sheyrymar C., Jae L., Lillian S., Ruby L., Charlotte P., Austen P., Emily S., Ariana H., Caitlyn R., Jessica S., Shelby B., Rachel F., Lydia D., Megan N., Lauren N., Augusta D., Peyton K., Lilly S., Sophia S., Katherine B. Lorelei S., Allison K., Leah S., Emma B. and Zoe M.

Number of projects: 13

girl scouts
in the heart
of pennsylvania

gshpa.org