

Proposed Slate GSHPA Board of Directors

Alison Bernhardt

2nd Term - Secretary

Growing up, Alison Bernhardt was a Girl Scout for several years and currently serves as Secretary to the Board of Directors, Chair of the Finance & Audit Committee, and a member of the Executive Committee for the Girl Scouts in the Heart of Pennsylvania.

She also serves as the Treasurer to the Board of the Harrisburg Regional Chamber. She received the honor of Central Pennsylvania Business Journal's Women of Influence and the honor of Women of Excellence.

Ms. Bernhardt is the Senior Vice President, Strategic Financial Operations for Select Medical, and has extensive experience managing financial actions and developing strategic direction for corporations in Central Pennsylvania, including financial forecasting and budgeting as well as analyzing organizations' financial strengths and weaknesses and proposing corrective actions.

In addition, she is a Certified Public Accountant.

Ms. Bernhardt lives in Mount Joy, Pennsylvania, with her husband, Michael, and their four children. In her free time, she can be found at area basketball courts, baseball diamonds, and soccer fields cheering on her children.

Elizabeth Dilullo Brown

2nd Term - Member-At-Large

Liz Brown joined the Strategic Planning Committee in 2021, and as part of the committee helped shepherd the COVID-19 recovery strategic plan and 2023-2026 GSHPA council strategic plan. She also serves as a Board of Directors Member-at-Large as well as a member of the Executive Committee.

Ms. Brown joined Little League International as the Senior Director of Marketing Partnerships in 2009, promoted to Vice President of Marketing and Strategic Partnerships in 2011, and then Vice President of Marketing and Communications in 2016. She was named Senior Vice President of Marketing and Communications in 2018, as the first woman at Little League International to hold the Senior Vice President title. Then, in 2023, she was promoted to EVP, Chief Marketing and Business Relationship Officer.

In 2015, Sports Business Journal named Ms. Brown a Game Changer Honoree, recognizing the accomplishments of women in the sports business. In December 2023, Liz was recognized by Women in Sport and Events – NYC Chapter – as a WISE Woman of Excellence.

In addition to her work for Little League International, Ms. Brown is also a Little League mom and local league volunteer in Lewisburg. She and her husband reside in Lewisburg with their two children.

Renee Mattei Montgomery

2nd Term - Member-At-Large

Renee Mattei Montgomery was a Girl Scout for 12 years, from Brownie through Ambassador, as well as a volunteer for over 15 years including service as a troop leader and service unit lead. She serves on the GSHPA Board of Directors as a Member-at-Large and as a member of both the Executive and Volunteer Strategy Committees.

At Eckert Seamans, Mrs. Montgomery focuses her practice on a wide variety of labor and employment matters in state and federal trial and appellate courts throughout Pennsylvania. She also serves as the Chair of the firm's Pro Bono Committee and as the Harrisburg office representative for the Women's Initiative. She has experience defending employers against discrimination claims under Title VII, Americans with Disabilities Act, Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Family and Medical Leave Act, and Pennsylvania Human Relations Act.

Mrs. Montgomery served on the Dauphin County Bar Association (DCBA) as a Board Member, Personnel Committee Chair, and Past President. She served as a mentor for the Pennsylvania Bar Association (PBA) Commission on Women in the Profession Mentoring Program. Her additional community involvement includes Salvation Army Harrisburg, Women Involved, United Way, Women's Leadership Network, National Multiple Sclerosis Society Leadership Council, and Central Pennsylvania Food Bank.

Ami Zumkhawala, MBA, MHSA

2nd Term - Member-At-Large

Ami Zumkhawala is a transformative healthcare executive for The Northridge Consulting Group. Leveraging 20+ years of experience in the global health care industry, she delivers people, process, and technology solutions to premier clients and business partners across the spectrum of providers, payers, drug and device manufacturers. Ami works with the highest levels of an organization providing strategy, management consulting, and operations expertise while working with diverse teams and complex business cultures.

Ami's previous leadership roles include Chief Operating Officer of Hamilton Health Center, Director of Penn State Children's Hospital, Administrative Director of Hospital Operations at Geisinger Holy Spirit Health in Camp Hill, and Chief Compliance & Privacy Officer for Holy Spirit Health System.

Ami is active in civic affairs and has a passion for non-profit organizations that focus on mentoring and education. She serves on the Board of Leadership Harrisburg Area, an organization dedicated to improving the quality of life in the Capital Region through servant leadership and effective community service. She is a graduate of Leadership Harrisburg Area's Executive Leadership Series Class of 2013 and served two terms on the board of Leadership Cumberland. Ami earned a Bachelor of Philosophy degree with concentration in biomedical ethics from Miami University (Oxford, Ohio) and earned two Master's degrees from Xavier University (Cincinnati, Ohio) in Business Administration in Health Services Administration.

Ami lives by her guiding purpose to affirm, connect, organize, and support the people and causes she cares for to create impactful, life giving, and sustainable change.

Proposed Slate
GSHPA
Board Development Committee

Robyn Holder

1st Term – Board Development

Robyn Holder is a GSHPA Member-at-Large and currently serves on the Fund Development Committee.

Participating in Girl Scouting herself, she is excited to bring her passion for fostering positive self-attitudes among girls and young women, along with her large community sphere of influence, to benefit Girl Scouts in the Heart of PA.

Ms. Holder uses her background in education, human development, business, organizational leadership, and nutrition in her current roles, as owner of BusyWork and President of Full Circle Vitality Group, LLC. BusyWork was started in 2021 to assist businesses in administrative tasks while keeping Ms. Holder engaged in the business world. As President of Full Circle Vitality Group, Robyn uses her experience as a nutritionist and educator to provide holistic nutrition and wellness program services to help individuals achieve optimal health. Prior to this, Robyn worked as an adjunct professor at Central Penn College and Writer and Editor for Absolute Wellness Group.

Locally, Ms. Holder serves on the Foundation for Enhancing Communities Board of Directors, and was an advisor to their Fund for Women and Girls. She is a member of the United Way's Tocqueville Society, and its Women in Tocqueville group. She has served on the YWCA's Friends Board, and is a Pillar Society member. Robyn served as a Board Member for the Whitaker Center for Science & the Arts, and is currently an Emeritus Member. Robyn recently joined the Advisory Board of Caron Treatment Centers. She is a supporter of many community organizations, especially those that benefit girls and women. In addition, Ms. Holder was previously named a Woman of Excellence by the YWCA and was a Woman in Philanthropy Award winner by The Foundation for Enhancing Communities Fund for Women and Girls.

Elizabeth Schluter

1st Term – Board Development

Elizabeth (Beth) Schluter grew up as a Girl Scout in Dauphin County. She currently serves as a member of the Strategic Planning Committee and is a former member of the GSHPA Board Development Committee.

She was the Director of Development for Susquehanna Health System, serving three hospitals in the greater Williamsport area. While there, she was responsible for consolidating the operations and fundraising programs of two separate hospital Foundations and developed and managed both the Susquehanna Health Investment Committee and the Susquehanna Council of Auxiliaries. Prior to this position, she was the Director of Administration and Finance for Seacoast HealthNet, Exeter, NH, and Director of Donor and Member Development for the Manomet Center for Conservation Sciences, Manomet, MA. Currently, Mrs. Schluter enjoys teaching youth tennis for the Central PA Tennis Center in South Williamsport.

A graduate of Colgate University, Hamilton, NY, she earned her Masters in Business degree at Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem, NC.

Mrs. Schluter has been an active community volunteer in Williamsport serving on the Boards of the Uptown Music Collective (President), YWCA of Northcentral PA, the NorthCentral PA Conservancy, and Loyalsock Township PTOs, as well as volunteering for the Lycoming County United Way, UPMC Williamsport, and managing concessions for Loyalsock township soccer.

She splits her time between Williamsport, PA and Jackson, WY with her husband Richard, and has two children, Alexander and Kathryn.

